

IKE INVOKES TAFT-HARTLEY ACT

WELCOME HOME, BLACKIE, says eight-year-old Tommy Sanchez after the shaggy spaniel returned home from a long sojourn in an animal hospital. Blackie almost lost his life when he tackled a pack of coyotes outside his La Quinta home in defense of his sleeping, young master. He's lost a lot of pep, but Tommy figures his plucky pup will be back to normal in no time. (Desert Sun Photo)

Chest Campaign Started Here This Morning

The campaign to raise $80,000 to finance Palm Springs' eight civic service and charitable organizations through 1960 got under way here officially today.

Lester Selig, president of the Chest, said that throughout the Village a troop of nearly 500 volunteers — recruited individually and through Palm Springs organizations — plunged into the first day of the campaign today.

RALLYING BEHIND an avowed determination that each Villager's "first responsibility rests in his — or her — community," the volunteers will seek out contributions from every person in the community.

"Ten cents or ten dollars," said Selig, "it doesn't really matter."

"What does matter is that every person in this community recognize his responsibility and meet it. The responsibility is here at home."

THE CAMPAIGN is aimed at achieving the $80,000 goal within 30 days, Selig pointed out, but could last as long as 45 days if the initial campaign falls short.

New Brush Fire Delays Control Of Other Blaze

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Embattled firemen fighting the nearly week-old Los Angeles foothill fire today had to contend with a new brush fire which already has blackened 3,000 acres.

U. S. Forestry Service spokesman Elmer Osterman said the new blaze — about 20 miles from the giant foothill fire — was being investigated to see if it was deliberately set. Both fires were in the sparsely Angeles National Forest.

Mailed This Week

Area Residents To Get Tax Bills

Desert area residents this week will start receiving their 1959-60 Riverside County secured tax bills, Donna M. Bower, tax collector, announced today.

All bills will be mailed this week and if not received by Nov. 1, property owners are asked to notify the tax collector's office at the court house in Riverside.

FIRST INSTALLMENT of the 1959-60 tax and all personal property assessments attached thereto, are due on Nov. 1, 1959, and will become delinquent if not paid by 5 p. m., Dec. 10, Miss Bower said. The second installment is due Feb. 1, 1960, and becomes delinquent if not paid by 5 p. m., April 11, 1960.

The entire tax on real property may be paid when the first installment is due, Miss Bower said, but the second installment may be paid separately only if the

COCKER TAKES ON COYOTES, SURVIVES

By AL LE ANCE

LA QUINTA — Blackie, a cocker spaniel who figures he can lick twice his weight in coyotes and almost died to prove it, is back at home today with both his skin and his pride intact.

The spunky pup was all but shredded when he tackled a pack of coyotes while he was "guarding" his young master, but his injured pride was restored by a real hero's welcome.

BLACKIE HAD HIS choice of the family larder when he returned to the Frank "Chico" Sanchez home at 42-43 E. Senenada here following his long sojourn at an animal hospital.

"You know, it's a funny thing," Sanchez remarked.

"I didn't want the dog when Tommy first brought him home — now I wouldn't take a million dollars for him."

SANCHEZ EXPLAINED that he was working out of town a few weeks ago and his wife was alone with eight-year-old Tommy, 11-year-old Ann and one-month-old Katherine Susan.

"We were all awakened by a terrific noise in the middle of the night," Mrs. Sanchez recounted.

MAGIC-BAGIC CONVENTION UNDER WAY

Men's Apparel Guild of California and Boy's Apparel Guild of California, started their annual convention at Palm Springs Riviera this weekend, with more than 1,500 delegates registering from all over the United States and as far away as Okinawa.

Theme of this year's MAGIC-BAGIC show is "Flight of Fashion" and manufacturers have taken some 70 rooms of the new hotel for clothing displays.

First day of registration was Saturday, and the convention will end Wednesday.

See Tuesday's Desert Sun for a picture story of the MAGIC-BAGIC convention here.

"It was a terrible racket," The "noise" was the ferocious sound of canines in combat, for Blackie had attacked a pack of coyotes which had come too close to the Sanchez house for his comfort.

"I DIDN'T KNOW what to do," Mrs. Sanchez said. "But all the neighborhood dogs started barking and I think that scared the coyotes away."

The fight was over in a few moments, but Blackie was nowhere to be found.

Mrs. Sanchez located him the next morning, hiding under an oleander bush, nursing a gaping wound in his back.

BLACKIE WAS near death when Mrs. Sanchez rushed him to the Indian Animal Hospital, where Dr. T. W. Overhulse stitched up his near-fatal wounds and nursed the shaggy spaniel back to health.

Sanchez said Blackie apparently believed he was guarding his young master, Tommy, when he lit into the coyotes. Tommy was sleeping on a screened porch.

Of course, Tommy was well protected by the solid porch panels, but Blackie doesn't know that — and no one's likely to tell him.

Concert Group To Held Kickoff Dinner Tonight

The 1959-60 membership campaign of the Palm Springs Community Concert Association gets under way officially here at 7 p. m., tonight, with a kickoff dinner in the Ranch Club.

J. Bradley Davis, president of the CCA here, estimated that "more than 200 campaigners" would be on hand for the second such event to be held by the CCA.

Education Board To Meet Tuesday

Palm Springs Board of Education members will meet at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday to canvass ballots cast in last Tuesday's $4,160,000 bond election.

The board, scheduled to meet in the high school music room, will also take up regular school business. This will take the place of Thursday's regular board meeting.

Five Killed In Two-Car Crash Here

Brother, Sister, Three Children Dead; One Injured

Five persons, including three children, were killed early last night when their car went out of control, smashed head-on into a second vehicle and burst into flames on Highway 99 near White-water.

One child, a three-year-old girl apparently burned to death in the flaming auto. The other four victims were hurled from the car by the impact of the crash, California Highway Patrol officers reported.

DEAD WERE the driver, John Clifford Beall, 20, of El Monte; his sister, Mrs. Ethel May Johns, 33, of San Bernardino, and her three children, Karen Ann Hanks, 8; Barbara Lynn Johns, 3, and James Cecil Johns, one month.

CHP officers said the driver of the second auto, Eugene Jennings, 46, of Dade County, Fla., went to Desert Hospital here for treatment of cuts and bruises of the face, possible internal injuries and severe ankle injuries.

Jennings' condition was reported as "satisfactory" this morning.

HIGHWAY PATROL investigators said Beall was driving west on Highway 99, one-half mile east of Whitewater at about 5:30 p. m., when a tire blew out, causing the car to spin across the center dividing strip into the path of the eastbound Jennings car, according to reports of witnesses.

Beall, his sister and Karen and infant James were catapulted from the auto as it overturned and burst into flames. All were instantly killed, according to a doctor who was treating Jennings at the scene when officers arrived.

BARBARA PERISHED when apparently ruptured fuel lines or gas tank blanketed the auto with a mass of flame, CHP officers said. Apparently no one was able to pull the child from the blazing wreck. Officials said her death was probably instantaneous.

Salinity Study

Congressmen Due This Week

Congressman D. S. Saund today said he is leading a House subcommittee on irrigation and reclamation on a two-day tour of Coachella and Imperial Valleys for a first-hand study of irrigation and salinity problems of agriculture in the areas.

The subcommittee group included Congressman Walter Rogers (D-Texas), and subcommittee chairman, Edgar Chenoweth (R-Colorado), Thomas Morris (D-New Mexico), and, possibly, Robert Wilson (R-California).

THE GROUP WILL arrive here at 5 p. m. Tuesday and will stay at the Biltmore Hotel. Saund reported that the committee will study salinity problems peculiar to the valleys. These particular problems, he said, are not found elsewhere in the Four other area parks are now planning to start Men's Clubs patterned after the program originated here by the Sun Town Trailer Park in Cathedral City. The clubs are designed for recreation and service. Temporary officers of the Ramon Club are, left to right, Jack Frost, song leader; Harold McKesson, treasurer; Jim Lackey, secretary; Frank J. Cullen, chairman; and George Tucker Smith, seated, pianist. Other officers not pictured are Dave Purviance, chaplain, and Lee Hammer, shuffleboard chairman. Permanent officers will be elected in the near future.

84 Escape Injury As Train Hits Stalled Truck

THE DALLES, Ore. (UPI) — A Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway passenger train, traveling about 70 miles an hour, smashed into a stalled truck near Lyle, Wash., across the river from here.

About 84 persons were aboard the train but no one was hurt seriously.

NINE OF THE 13 cars were derailed when the Western Star struck a Herrett Co. truck and trailer that was caught in the tracks.

Rails were twisted and bent double and ties were chewed up in the accident. Some of the cars were reported buckled in the air, and one report from a train company telegraph operator said a car was hurled into the Columbia River while eight others were hanging dangerously close to the water on an embankment.

THE ENGINE crushed the front of the truck.

The engineer, E. Lingo, Vancouver, Wash., had only three more trips to make before retiring, according to crewmen.

IKE ACTS TO END STEEL WALKOUT

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today ordered the Justice Department to seek a Taft-Hartley Act injunction to end the steel strike.

His action came only hours after receiving a report from his fact-finding board that steel negotiations are hopelessly deadlocked.

THE JUSTICE Department is expected to go into court in Pittsburgh to seek the injunction.

The President's order came as the Steelworkers Union served notice it would fight "with might and main" against issuance of an injunction.

David J. McDonald, steel union president, declared that the steelworkers would go to the Supreme Court if necessary to fight issuance of a court order to end the 97-day-old walkout.

McDONALD, WHO MET with the union's executive committee, reiterated that if an injunction is

Negotiations Resume Today In Dock Strike

NEW YORK (UPI) — Negotiations resume today in the two-coast dock strike halted by a Taft-Hartley injunction Oct. 8.

Officials of the International Longshoremen's Association and the New York Shipping Association were meeting for the first time since 70,000 longshoremen walked out at Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports Oct. 1.

The strike was halted after eight days by a federal court order. The original no-strike order was extended Saturday for the full 80 days authorized by the Taft-Hartley Law.

Longshoremen could resume the strike if no agreement is reached when the injunction expires in December.

BLOOD BANK SETS MONTHLY VISIT HERE ON MONDAY

Riverside-San Bernardino two-county Blood Bank will make its regular monthly visit to Desert Hospital next Monday, Oct. 26, from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. Hospital Administrator Robert Henwood announced today.

Henwood asked that the excellent record set by Village residents last month be continued. Quota is 25 pints of blood.

The Women's Auxiliary of the hospital will be in charge of refreshments and registration.

Governor Gives Factors In Decision

Does Not Believe Use of Clemency Would Be Proper

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown today refused to save the life of Caryl Chessman, kidnaper - rapist and best-selling author, who is scheduled to die next Friday in the San Quentin Prison gas chamber.

"I have used the power of clemency before," the governor said in a formal statement, "and in proper cases I will use it again. I do not believe this is a proper case."

BROWN SAID several factors weighed heavily in his thinking not to grant mercy to Chessman. These, he said, included "a deliberate plan of robberies, sexual attacks, and the use of a loaded gun."

"So too, has Chessman's failure to show contrition."

"His attitude has been one of steadfast arrogance and contempt for society and its laws. I have considered too the matter of prior felony convictions. Our Constitution recognizes this as a factor in clemency and limits the governor's power to act except upon recommendations from the state Supreme Court where there is a prior felony conviction."

Brown reiterated his personal opposition to capital punishment but said he had sworn to uphold and "faithfully to execute the laws of this state."

"Capital punishment remains part of that law," his statement said, "and the chief executive, whatever his personal beliefs, must respect and be guided by the will of the people."

BROWN SAID HE had great power to grant clemency but he said in the Chessman case "I have searched the record and my conscience for some sufficient basis for resolving the issue in favor of clemency."

"I have been unable to do so," Chessman, who wrote a best-seller called "Cell 2455, Death Row" during his almost 12 years in the shadow of the gas chamber, has become the object of a worldwide controversy between those who oppose the death penalty and those who feel his long series of crimes deserves the maximum punishment.

Aubrey Wardman Injured in Fall

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Area pioneer Aubrey Wardman suffered two cracked ribs in a fall at a local motel early Sunday morning, it was reported today.

Wardman was injured when he fell while trying to light a lamp in his room at McLaughlin's Manor, where he and his wife were staying while visiting friends here over the weekend.

The elderly pioneer was treated at Desert Hospital by his own physician and was taken to his home in Whittier by ambulance later in the day.

WEATHER

Desert area forecast: Mostly sunny today and Tuesday. Slightly cooler in northern valleys today. High temperatures 83 to 93 in upper valleys, 93 to 103 in lower valleys. Gusty winds reaching about 25 miles per hour today.

Saturday's high was 104, low 59; Sunday's high was 99, low 60.

IDEAS OF DESERT UP FOR REVISION

There will be a lot of fixed ideas about American Deserts changed this fall, at least there will be if the Desertland Committee of California have their way.

The committee was formed specially last year in Palm Springs in a rather hopeful effort to tell residents of the Middle-west and East the facts about desert living.

ACCORDING TO committee spokesman George Ripley, chairman of the California State Chamber of Commerce Desert Committee "most visitors are even in these days, amazed to find that the California Desert belt does not in any way fit their preconceived idea of vast barren sand dunes, cattle skulls and ghostly prairie schooners."

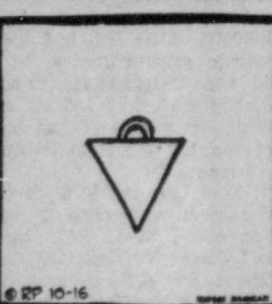

Flooding Danger Leads to Denial Of PD Project

A tentative map for a proposed development on the east side of the Palms to Pines Highway south of Palm Desert was disapproved by the Board of Supervisors this week on recommendation by the planning commission. The developers are John Liersch and Lloyd Rodgers of Vancouver, B.C., Canada.

The commissioners based their recommendation on the possibility of flooding by stormwater flows from Cat Creek to which the property site on Dead Indian Canyon Debris Cone is subjected.

Lowell O. Weeks, general manager and chief engineer for the Coachella Valley County Water District, said the district has plans to protect the cone from the stormwaters of Cat, Ramon, and other creeks of the mountain range to the west, but until such protection works are completed properties on the cone will be subject to stormwater damage.

PAUL PRICE'S DROODLE

"BRIEF CASE OWNED BY A DIAPER SALESMAN"

When my colleague, Dr. Schwine saw this Droodle he accused me of swiping it out of a new book he just wrote called "THE COMPLETE BABY OWNERS HANDBOOK." The truth is that he stole the Droodle out of my book (DROODLES OF DROODLES) and when I confronted him with the evidence he agreed to drop his charges if I'd mention that his book contains such topics as "THE MIDNIGHT FEEDING—HOW TO AVOID IT," "MARRIAGE—HOW TO AVOID IT," "HOW TO BURP OR NOT TO BURP," "IS DR. SPOCK REALLY A BACHELOR?" "HOW TO GET RID OF THE COLIC," "HOW TO GET RID OF RELATIVES," "SHOULD BABY SITTERS JOIN THE TEAMSTERS UNION?" "THE TRUTH ABOUT TEDDY BEARS" and "ARE BABY SCALES RIGGED?" but I see no reason why I should give Dr. Schwine's books my free publicity. Do you?

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: Why is it assumed by city folks that we people who live on farms can take on the responsibility of an unlimited number of discarded pets?

In the 14 years that we've lived on a farm, we've had over 300 dogs and cats (usually approaching motherhood) deliberately dropped off on our property.

We have kept some, given some to friends, nursed back to health those that were ailing—but there is a limit.

Some people have even abandoned sick animals who were so far gone that we had to have them put to the vet's to have them mercifully put out of their misery. We have had it! How can we put a stop to this endless chain of cast-offs?

FARMER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: You can't. City folks will always "deliberately drop off" unwanted pets on the property of farmers because they know that people like you live on farms. They shouldn't do it—but they will.

DEAR ABBY: What does it mean when a boy bites the tip of your ear?

BERNICE

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR BERNICE: It means he is either teasing or would like to know you better.

DEAR ABBY: I am going with a swell kid. He looks kind of hoody but he isn't that way at all. He used to be wild, but he's changed. He was thrown out of school because he kicked a teacher in the cafeteria. I talked to his mother yesterday and she said they were going to let him come back to school Monday and put him on probation. My parents won't let me see him. They think he's no good. When he calls me on the phone they tell him not to call any more and they won't let me talk to him. How can I convince my parents that he's a good kid? They won't even give him a chance to prove himself.

TRUE LOVE

DEAR TRUE: Your parents are judging this boy on his past performance. He has a lot of "proving" to do before he is regarded as a "good kid." Until he establishes a record for consistent good behavior (and fast) don't blame your parents for keeping you apart.

FILMLAND TO PAY FINAL TRIBUTE TO FLYNN TODAY

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Filmland pays its final tribute today to Errol Flynn, but the actor's last love — 17-year-old Beverly Aadland — wasn't on hand for the funeral services.

Miss Aadland, who was the 50-year-old actor's "protege" for the past two years left Hollywood Sunday night for an undisclosed destination.

"WE DON'T KNOW where she is," said her mother, Mrs. Florence Aadland. She said she had advised her daughter to stay away from the funeral.

Two of the actor's three wives were expected to be among the great and small of Hollywood to turn out for services at Forest Lawn's Church of the Reformation. The wives attending were his widow, Mrs. Patrice Wymore, who arranged for the services and burial, and Mrs. Nora Eddington Flynn Haymes, his second wife.

MISS WYMORE, who was estranged from Flynn, arranged for the service with burial following in Forest Lawn.

Miss Aadland sought to have Flynn buried in Jamaica, saying he hated Hollywood, but the teenager had to give in to the wishes of Miss Wymore.

Flynn's parents, Professor and Mrs. Theodore Flynn, flew here from London for the services.

The actor's first wife, Lilli Damita, remained at her Florida home.

JACK WARNER, head of Warner Bros. Studio, was selected to read the eulogy at services conducted by the Rev. Kermit Castellanos of All Saints Church of Beverly Hills.

Flynn's body arrived Sunday from Vancouver, B.C., where he died last Wednesday, in a plain $25 pine casket. The body was taken to Forest Lawn Mortuary where it was transferred to a bronze casket.

Miss Wymore ordered the casket to remain closed at the mortuary.

EARL WILSON

Gary Cooper Backs Van Doren

NEW YORK — A guy stood up for Charles Van Doren. A big guy, too — Gary Cooper.

"I imagine whatever Van Doren did, he did because somebody told him, 'This is just a show business gimmick,'" drawled the normally tight-lipped "Coop" over his second glass of buttermilk. "It wasn't any skin off my nose nor anybody else's nose as far as I can see, why the fuss?"

"Some of these guys in government and politics haven't much right to criticize Van Doren on moral issues. If a politician's life-long friend, Joe Blow, runs against him, he's got to call Joe Blow a liar and practically an s.o.b. because that's how it works."

I asked Cooper to comment because he's a symbol of Hollywood and Show Business.

"Been around for 30 years, that's what you mean," he laughed.

"I had arguments with my wife about the quiz shows. I said they were guys speaking prepared lines. She said 'Oh, you think everything's fixed.'"

"When I work, they give me my lines, gags and directions. I figured quiz shows were acting, too. The guy sweats and he's got the ear muffs on. Personally, I didn't care if the set-up was a little bit phony. I wanted to see how good the guy did his act. It didn't hurt me. The guy it's going to hurt most is Van Doren."

"What about the public being defrauded?" I asked. "Of what?" Cooper said. "The public didn't pay to get in. Maybe the sponsors got a few extra points in the ratings. But it's not like pickin' somebody's pockets."

Cooper of course "couldn't imagine" Van Doren committing perjury. "Coop" has thought about morals lately. His new Rita Hayworth picture, "They Came to Cordura," deals with courage and cowardice.

"If I were in front of a grand jury and in my right mind, I'd have to tell the truth," he said. "Not because I'm such a wonderful person, but those things have a way of bouncing back."

"One bad thing could be the effect on kids who've seen big people get caught lying," he admitted. "If you relax a little bit from telling the truth, the next step is relaxing a little more, and finally you're ready to perjure yourself on life and death. But I can't imagine Van Doren..."

"Have you said anything to your wife about being right about some of the quiz shows?" I asked.

"No," he grinned. "Let it lay."

With his wife and daughter, he's going to Russia shortly to represent Hollywood. "I like our business," he said. "You don't have to kick anybody around in it like you do in politics. You make a picture and if people don't like it, you say, 'Well, we lost a little money' — you hope it was somebody else's."

Coburn, Bride Leave on Long Honeymoon

83-Year-Old Actor, Widow, 41, Married Sunday at Las Vegas

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Charles Coburn, monocol 83-year-old actor who believes that "sex appeal, like smooth brandy, improves with age," leaves today for a week-long honeymoon with his attractive 41-year-old bride.

The chipper and gracious actor refused to reveal where he and Winnifred Gean Clements Natzka planned to spend their first week of marriage.

THEY WERE married in a surprise civil ceremony in Las Vegas, Nev., Sunday and returned here Sunday night for a reception at the home of his bride's sister, Mrs. Lawrence A. Dysart.

It was the second marriage for Coburn and also the second for his bride. Both were widowed.

"This is no sudden thing," he told reporters as he and his bride held hands.

He said they met about six years ago and had been planning the marriage for the past year.

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:

$500,000,000 LOSS

THE NATION—INCLUDING YOU—EVERY YEAR

Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year.

You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy.

Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman — even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend.

The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation.

In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

He Helps Palm Springs

Today we do a rare thing in our editorial column.

We devote this space to a tribute to an individual . . . a local citizen who has done a great deal for Palm Springs . . . a man who loves our City so much that he has dedicated many years of his life in unceasing endeavors to improve it and bring pleasure to all.

For the moment we shall not mention his name. As a man who does not seek publicity he would be the last to expect or consent to thus being singled out for individual praise for his many efforts in behalf of the community.

But we believe that he is deserving of credit, and, that his deeds speak so well for themselves that almost everyone will be aware of his identity before his name . . . well known to all . . . is mentioned.

We speak of a man who for many years and often at his own expense, (even though the financial loss to himself was anticipated in advance), has continued to keep his place of business open, season in and out the year 'round, and above all, has provided local people and visitors with a service and type of entertainment so above the average that the very name of his establishment is as well known to millions of Americans as any of the leading ones of its type in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles or other metropolitan centers.

Through some of the lean, earlier years, he even disposed of "paying" businesses in other localities to continue to help Palm Springs and concentrate on giving his best to the people here, so deep was his devotion to this community and so strong his faith and desire to see our City and surrounding area prosper.

It was he who also planned, made possible and induced several of the larger stores to establish local branches which now rate highest in their entire groups.

Recently he doubled the size of his own celebrated place of business, now one of the foremost of its kind in the world. Never does he hesitate to open the season "early" was famous name entertainers to help get Palm Springs off to a fine start well ahead of other winter resorts.

Finally, and one of crowning achievements of his many years of splendid contributions to the community, he has now provided it with one of the largest, finest and most complete resort type hotels to be found anywhere in America.

This newest hostelry with 250 deluxe modern rooms, a 9 hole golf course, swimming pools, cafes, bars, tennis courts and many other recreation and leisure facilities, meeting rooms and a convention hall accommodating 1,300 persons, is by far the greatest single commercial asset in the history of Palm Springs.

It makes possible the bringing to Palm Springs scores of larger conventions in addition to those handled by other hotels.

The preview opening of Hotel Riviera several evenings ago was truly an epochal event in the community for it opened. It makes an excellent companion complementing his world renowned Chi Chi.

The Desert Sun is proud and happy to join with the many thousands of warmly enthusiastic well wishers near and far in extending congratulations to that great and devoted Palm Springs supporter, Mr. Irwin S. Schuman and his brother, Mark.

After all these years of untiring efforts in behalf of the community, Mr. Schuman, your eventual success is richly deserved. May it be unbounded and greater than even you expected. As you prosper, so does Palm Springs. Fortunately we are we to number among us a man with such vision and farsightedness, determination, ability, inspiration and unflinching community devotion.

You have done much to help Palm Springs become the City that it is now. Your even greater recent accomplishments are certain to make it a bigger and better place in which to live for many, many years to come, long past the lifetime of those of us here today.

It is our privilege and pleasure to bespeak the grateful appreciation of the townsfolk and their sincere best wishes and hearty congratulations to you.

Compulsory Arbitration

WASHINGTON, D. C. — There is an expression — Compulsory Arbitration — which Labor-Management relations avoid as if it were a hornet's nest. But with the industrial Cold War being what it is, we'd better grip our teeth and admit that there is such a thing as a forced, dictated return to work in the name of public interest, on terms set by an outside arbiter.

If the steel strike goes on for another hundred days, overpassing the 80 day Taft-Hartley recess and all Presidential appeals, we are going to hear a lot about Compulsory Arbitration. It is possible that Congress, in special or regular session, will translate it into legislation. It is more remotely possible that the President will dig up some emergency powers and enact it by executive decree.

Compulsory Arbitration is unusual in that both Management and Labor are, generally speaking, against it. Let us hear from both sides:

Management: "We are not opposed to the principle of arbitration, but we are opposed to arbitrating principles. . . we could not possibly agree to arbitration (in the Perfect Circle Corp. strike) because the principal issue in dispute was the union (compulsory union) shop." William Prosser, President, Perfect Circle Corp., before the McClellan Committee in 1958.

Labor: "I HAVE been unreservedly opposed to any type of compulsory arbitration . . . I saw in . . . arbitration . . . a blow at the fundamentals of voluntary institutions which, to my way of thinking, are the heart of freedom." — Sam Gompers, Labor patriarch, in his autobiography "Seventy Years of Life and Labor."

But if the steel strike goes on, affecting millions of Americans and eventually damaging the American defense posture, what then? Are there not considerations higher than the desires of Management and Labor? Let us hear from the experts:

PRO-ARBITRATION: "There are profound economic conflicts . . . which can hardly be decided except by some form of coercion. The Modern State (must) make the preservation of an orderly Society more important than the liberty of the individual to fight out his quarrels regardless of the injury done to others.

"Even a father and mother who have been separated, with each wanting the custody of a child, must submit this controversy to the final and binding decision of public authority. . . . The proposition that economic justice cannot be obtained except by leaving men free to coerce and intimidate one another is absurd." — Donald R. Richberg in his book "Industrial Disputes and the Public Interest."

ANTI-ARBITRATION: "Those favoring compulsory arbitration of public emergency disputes would scrap collective bargaining in that one area. . . . It is unthinkable in this country. And fortunately there are alternatives. . . . Before discussing these alternatives, it is important to note why compulsory arbitration does not provide the easy answer."

LONDON (UPI) — A spokesman for the Ministry of Health today said figures which showed a decrease in marriages were no reflection on British youth.

"We think the reason is that there are fewer older people about today who want to marry," he said.

Compulsory arbitration does not eliminate (illegal) strikes. . . would not even diminish the number of crises. . . might even make occasional crises more difficult to resolve. . . . It is entirely incompatible with our ideas about the way men live and work together. . . . won't effectively meet the problem of avoiding work stoppages that create public emergencies." — George W. Taylor, chairman of the President's fact-finding board on the steel strike, in a 1948 address.

THERE IS A LOT of contradiction in these statements. Hence, they cannot all be true. But there is some truth, I think, in them all. We do not live in a world of absolutes. The art of living, and of freedom in government, certainly contemplates many variations of the old patterns, and many new beginnings.

President Eisenhower's gross mistake in supporting the Supreme Court on school segregation was to call upon force when he ordered the paratroopers into Little Rock. It would be even more disastrous, since it would be more widespread, and because Labor leaders are not as reasonable and long-suffering as the Southern peoples, if Mr. Eisenhower should try anything drastic in reopening the steel mills.

But the President, with the cooperation of Congress, and the understanding of the American public, ought to consider a re-vamping of the whole Management-Labor relationship. There is too much power in the hands of too few men. This power to disemploy thousands, to inconvenience millions, to gamble with so many blue chips, needs to be redistributed. Once the concentration of power is reduced, there will be much less need to talk about compulsion of any sort. — HOLMES ALEXANDER

Invitation to the Low Road

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

No change in the weather,
You probably forgot
That in October,
It sometimes gets hot.
Perhaps I should show more restraint and say "warm" instead of "hot." But it is easier to rhyme "hot."

WHAT BRINGS this all up was that the other morning, when it was quite warm, I met a gentleman while wandering up the Drive. He is an old-timer here and he stopped me and said:
"Something is happening to our weather, our climate. It was never hot like this in October before."

That was the day it just topped 100 degrees.
He has been here twice as long as I have but I didn't believe him.

SO I RUSHED (well, anyway, quicker than my pace) back to the office to refer to that compilation of figures on Palm Springs temperatures sent me recently by Mr. William Lippman.

Bill, an old-time Villager and former rationing chief here, makes a hobby of keeping track of our weather and has sent me copies of his work. The latest was on October temperatures here since the early 40s.

OUR WEATHER is definitely NOT changing.

According to his figures there were only two years in the last 20 when the mercury, at some time or other, did not reach or exceed, 100 degrees maximum.
One was in 1946 and the other two years ago, 1957.

Last year, 1958, in case you've forgotten, it was 107 on October 16, which was just a year ago from the day this is being pecked out.

But, cheer up, right after that,
the mercury started to nose dive and there were few days when the mercury even hit 90.

ACCORDING TO Bill's figures, we've gone as high as 109 in October (1950) and as low as 37 (1946).

In fact, his charts show that there is little difference between the 1959 pattern for October and the 1940 pattern.

(The rise and fall of the mercury seems to go in cycles but what worries me is that it seems to be on the upgrade now.)

As to rain — the chart shows that there have been only five years in the last 20 in which rain fell here in October, so don't crack out the raincoat and umbrella yet.

TODAY IS A GREAT day in history for you quick lunchers.
It was 215 years ago today
(774) that the Earl of Sandwich who invented that mid-time snack, the sandwich, grew alarmed at the way people were taking to his invention and issued a proclamation.

This new delicacy, he decreed, should be eaten with a "civilized swallow and not a barbarian gulp."

So chew that hamburger, don't bolt. That's what the man who invented it said.

A LOT OF WEEKS start today and of them, two seem allied.

One of the weeks now being observed is National Thrift Week.

Another is Pass the Laugh
Week.

Try the first and you get the second.

FRANK ELEAZER:

Happy Birthday to You

WE HAD A BIRTHDAY the other day. Very successful. Our daughter baked the cake. It came in blazing with candles.
I blew them out in a single Our 4-year-old boy helped me open the presents. He gave me a top. It was just what I wanted;
just what I have been waiting for.

I ALSO RECEIVED a box of candy and some coloring crayons.
Everybody helped me eat
the candy. It was delicious.

With the coloring crayons, I DREW A HIPPOPOTAMUS. Like the one we saw in the jungle river at Disneyland. Everybody agreed that it was most life-like. I have decided that I have untapped reserves of talent and possibly have been wasting the best years of my life.

THE TOP came with some string — about ten pieces of string, each one six inches long.
Is that something new in tops?
Something I don't know about?

It is a normal top in all other ways. (Though it does seem to me that tops have been going down in recent years.)

Tops that I remember had a LONG piece of string. With a wooden button on the end.

YOU FLIPPED the top out almost to the end of the string.
Then you gave it a little jerk backward. This returned the spinning top which you caught—still spinning—on the palm of your hand.

You then let the top down the string. A loop of string that the top ran down. At the bottom, you gave it another jerk which added to the spin and also flipped it up to spin on your palm again.

I have no earthly idea what you do with ten pieces of six-inch string.

If I discover the top man sawed off a poor top job on us, I will have the mob take care of him.

THE DAY WAS one of those warm, Indian summer days.
You are not allowed to hang around on a birthday. Because it is a surprise, that's why.

You are not allowed to overhear: "I CAN'T FIND THE CAKE MIX."

"LOOK IN THE BOTTOM
CUPBOARD! BEHIND THE PEANUT BUTTER!"

My son confides to me pretty regularly, though — it is a thing between men; women would not understand it.

HE TELLS ME what the presents
are. Who is buying what.
I must promise to forget, though.
I do, I forget just as soon as he tells me. What a terrible memory I have.

"You forget, daddy?"

"Forget what I cannot remember a thing. I don't know what you are talking about."

THIS SENDS HIM into stitches.
Here is a cat you can say "top" to one minute. And the next minute he cannot remember a thing about it. It is very satisfactory.

Oh yes. He told me about the paper hats. But I forgot it immediately. And when the hats appeared—you pull them out of a decorated little roll that goes POP when you pull the end. When they appeared, I was completely surprised.

THERE WERE some apologies for the cake: "The timer on the stove went off but I was asleep and didn't hear it. So it might be a LITTLE overdone."

I assured her it was NOT overdone. In fact, I would say this was the best cake I had ever had. It had chocolate icing.

She also cooked the dinner.
She is best on hamburgers. So that is what we had. (The buns burned a little because we forgot about them. But they are perfectly good if you just scrape them.)

THEN THERE WAS a good deal of hissing and whispering:
"You turn off the lights." "No,
YOU turn them off." "Watch out for the candles."

I sat there nonchalantly and didn't hear a thing.

Then the lights went off and the blazing cake came in. And everybody sang "Happy Birthday to You." I was astonished.
Because, you see, I had forgotten
all about it.

Come to think of it, no time has been wasted. THESE are the best years of our life.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

$50,000 for Rights

HOLLYWOOD — Producer
Ross Hunter forked over a fancy $50,000 for the film rights to the exciting life stories of the late Lillian Leitzel and her husband,
Alfredo Codona of The Flying Circus. Hunter has it earmarked for Audrey Hepburn and Rock Hudson.

The Leitzel-Codona marriage was one of the most romantic in the history of the Ringling Bros.-Barnum & Bailey Circus.
Lillian was the only femme aerialist in history who could do 100 one-arm planges (arm-over-body swings) in a row. Hers was the highest-paid act under The Big Top.

MANY'S THE TIME when I was a youngster in Chicago I watched her thrilling act while the bass drum pounded out each turn she made and all of us in the audience counted "—96, 97, 98, 99—" and then shouted out that final "ONE HUNDRED!"

Then they would tower the rope and Lillian would take those graceful bows of hers in the center ring and skip off. She never made her last bow. She fell from the rigging in Copenhagen (I believe it was in the late '30s) and was killed. Alfredo, most daring of the male aerialists, re-married but committed suicide several years later.

METRO PRODUCER Larry Weingarten also has a circus story on his schedule. It's "The Talker," based on Robert Lewis Taylor's New Yorker Magazine series about Nate Eagle, the glib, fast-talking sideshow spieler for the same circus. Larry wants either Frank Sinatra or Dean Martin to play Eagle.

Harry Belafonte signed up for daily psychiatric sessions. He explains: "It's to take care of the unreality of my present way of life." Understandable, when you consider the grinding poverty of Harry's youth compared with the lout-ful, luxurious life he lives today as one of the world's top stars.

SIDNEY PORTIER and Eli Wallach will team in a stage production of "Othello" next year — Sidney in the title role and Eli as Iago. It's type-casting, when (and if) you remember their look-alikes, Paul Robeson and Jose Ferrer, in the same roles a few years back.

Sandra Church won't be singing "Let Me Entertain You" in Broadway's "Gypsy" very much longer. Her producer (and also her favorite fella) is Jules Syne. He has tagged her to play the romantic lead opposite Gerry Mulligan in his next musical, "Do-Re-Mi." It stars Phil Silvers and it will be directed by Garson Kanin. Meaning Sandra will scream "Gypsy" in January.

SHOE MANUFACTURER Harry Karl sure gets around — sho' nuff! The shoe man pulled some strings (no, not shoestrings) and got two sets of license plates for his new $29,000 Rolls-Royce.

The British plate reads
"HK-1" (as in "Harry Karl No.
One") and the California plate covers his profession: "SHU-000."

CHANNEL CHATTER—Mary Pickford turned a deaf ear to the producer of Person-to-Person.
She won't appear on the show and neither will her famous hilltop home, the first great showplace of Beverly Hills, Pickfair. I asked America's Sweetheart why she turned it down. "I'm retired," she said,
"and why shatter the illusion?"

DuPont signed "Room at the Top" star Simone Signoret to play The Fair DuCinea in Show-of-the-Month "Don Quixote." Lee J. Cobb will not only play the windmill-tilting Don, he'll also play the Don's creator, Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra.

Off-the-beaten soundtrack taping on a Troubadours set:
"All I want is a simple wedding — just me and a bridegroom!"

ACTORS ARE traditionally self-centered. It's unusual when they toss a testimonial dinner for one of their own. But that's what the Masquers' Club of Hollywood did for Ronald Reagan
last week.

Besides as Harry Joe Brown pointed out from the dais, "Ronnie is president of the Screen Actors' Guild, in addition to being the new TV Ambassador of Good Will for General Electric, and he has made many an actor happy by negotiating a fine minimum salary contract with the unhappy producers."

TOASTMASTER ALAN Mowbray called on various guests to say a few words about the guest of honor, including Reagan's wife, Nancy Davis. Totally unprepared, Nancy asked, "But what can I say about my own husband?" Dick Powell hollered,
"Just tell the truth!" Reagan interjected, "No, no, not that — this is supposed to be a HAPPY night for me!"

Spring Byington toasted Reagan for setting up minimum scale for Walt Disney's cartoon critters. . . . There were a lot of other speakers too but the best of the bunch was Jack Benny, who called Reagan "The Betty Furness of General Electric."

Added Jack: "I got here late tonight because I was over at NBC doing the next George Burns special."

"George's guests on the show are George Jessel, Eddie Cantor and myself, re instead of introducing it with the usual NBC peacock with're beaming a boiled chicken with matzo balls!"

QUOTES

thoughts expressed in Latin we wish to tell you in your own language of the pleasure it gives

Royal Reception Awaits Newest Bunde for Britain

(In the following dispatch, Margaret Saville, noted reporter on the British royal family, provides the first details of how Queen Elizabeth II is making ready for her third child.)

By MARGARET SAVILLE
United Press International

LONDON (UPI) — Plans for the arrival of a baby in any family create excitement. And it's no different in Buckingham Palace, where there is a flurry of preparation for the arrival of Queen Elizabeth's third child, expected in January.

Elizabeth, in a recent stay at Buckingham, decided on "a big, airy third-floor room as a good location for the nursery. This floor is where the Prince of Wales and Princess Anne have their rooms.

The nursery overlooks the palace gardens, Constitution Hill and St. James's Park with a view of the daily changing of the guard from one of the front windows.

The royal infant's room will be quite simply decorated in pastel colors, and the same furniture used for the Queen's two children will come out of storage to be used again. The pieces include a small applewood table with two chairs to match a large bow-fronted chest painted white (in which all the baby's clothes and accessories can be kept), some comfortable antz-covered chairs, and a small, nursing chair.

Queen Elizabeth likely will use the same cot used twice before. On each previous occasion it was trimmed with frilled white muslin over a and decorated with ribbon in the Queen's favorite shade, primrose yellow. Such trimmings will make it "suitable for either a boy or a girl," as Elizabeth has said before.

Elizabeth's intimate friends report she and Prince Philip will welcome either a boy or girl. But for members of the royal family are said to feel that a boy would make them happiest.

The royal sentiment, taking the long view, is that when the new prince grew up he would be able to share the many official duties which require a man's attention. Without a brother Prince Charles is going to have an exceedingly busy life.

When it comes to the layette for the new baby, the Queen will almost certainly use many of the tiny garments which served Princess Anne and her brother. The garments, 11 years old now, all have been carefully preserved and are in excellent condition. The beautifully hand-stitched frocks and gowns were made by residents of the Linen and Woolen Drapers Society Homes for the Aged.

Exquisitely knitted garments were given the queen in her earlier maternities by members of the Nursery Nurses Association, the club to which the "Nannies" of Britain's aristocratic and wealthy children all belong. The nannies probably will be making another set or two for the new baby. All the clothes are in white. The Queen prefers white until the children are a year old and both of hers followed this royal tradition.

Painting a room is easier if you assemble all the equipment first. This should include paints, a round brush for window sash, a two-inch brush for trim, a large brush for walls, plaster sealer and applicator, newspapers and drop cloths, wiping rags, and masking tape.

Snacks Make The Party and Any Party Goes for Snacks

By JEANNE LESEM
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — Prediction for the 1959-1960 social season: More parties but less work for hostesses.

New snacks at the fifth annual National Fancy Food and Confection Show emphasized convenience of preparation and serving.

One snack manufacturer, apparently influenced by a Chinese fortune cookie baker, showed thumb-nail-size snacks in fortune cookie shapes in three flavors — onion, garlic and savory (a spice mixture). Cocktail bows, also garlic-flavored, resemble miniature bow-ties.

Inch-square party crisps and short-pencil-thin party sticks — both potato products — are designed for nibbling or dipping.

Pretzels have gone high hat, both in flavor and shape. Thumb-nail-size oval pretzels are available in plain, caraway, and a mild cheese flavor. Hush puppy snacks, about the same size, are made with a meal base and a smoky, onion flavor.

Smoked mullet and smoked mackerel spreads also are recommended for dipping.

Packaged party dips come in 3 flavors — toasted onion, cheddar cheese and bleu cheese. They can be reconstituted with either milk or sour cream.

Both afternoon dress and casual sport belts feature a panorama of early American decorations: Civil War buckles, stars and stripes, eagles and regimental decorations, made of metal and leather, highlight belts for the young-in-heart.

You can now roll on lipstick with a gadget that's like a super ball-point pen. Just remove the lipstick cap and the rounded ball-point applicator tip is ready to use. Color flows from a patented inner well. (Lip Quick, Richard Hurinut, New York, N.Y.)

Togetherness

The idea that host and hostess must always face each other from opposite ends of the table is yielding to modern ideas of hospitality.

Mrs. Helen Sprackling, author of "Setting Your Table," said: "We now frequently find them facing each other from the center sides, flanked by guests."

"The uncertainty of continued full-scale production of steel is effecting the production of new 1960 Cadillacs and Oldsmobiles. We prepared for this possible emergency by ordering an extra number of new 1959 models. These cars all carry the regular factory warranty, and are being offered at very attractive discounts. Why not stop in and inspect both these 1959 models, as well as the new 1960's which are now on display in our show room?"

SPORTS in the SUN

Monday, October 19, 1959 The Desert Sun 7

PALM SPRINGS GOLF COURSE, better known as the municipal golf course, should be opened for play on Nov. 2, 1959. Both local residents and visitors are given a reduction in fees through the use of ticket books which will be issued by the city government. Planned as one of the most popular of local courses, the Palm Springs Golf Course will be a real challenge to golfers. The course, with the exception of two greens, will be ready for play in two weeks, according to City Manager Dan Wagner. (Desert Sun Photo).

THE WINTER GOLF CAPITAL OF THE WORLD

Palm Springs Golf Course Is Newest Desert Facility

Opening Set for Nov. 2

(Editor's Note: This is the ninth in a series of articles on Palm Springs Area golf courses. Written, compiled and edited by The Desert Sun sports staff, the articles are dedicated to a better understanding of the golf facilities in the Winter Golf Capital of the World.)

By FRED C. WEIGEL

On or about Nov. 2, the people of Palm Springs will see a dream come true. The official opening of the Palm Springs Golf Course — a municipal golf facility operated by the City of Palm Springs.

Comprised of 18-holes, the championship course is built on a total of 156 acres, has a total of 6,550 yards and is 72 par.

AS IS ANY municipally sponsored project, the Palm Springs Golf Course has suffered setback after setback since the city signed its lease-purchase agreement with the Westview Development Corporation, the company which first started the course as a private operation some two years ago.

But each setback has only been temporary, and today the course is almost ready for play. The City Council has pressed for a speedup of completion, golf carts have been purchased, construction has been started on rest room facilities and on a cart-shed.

CITY EMPLOYEES are working every day of the week to get the greens and fairways into top shape.

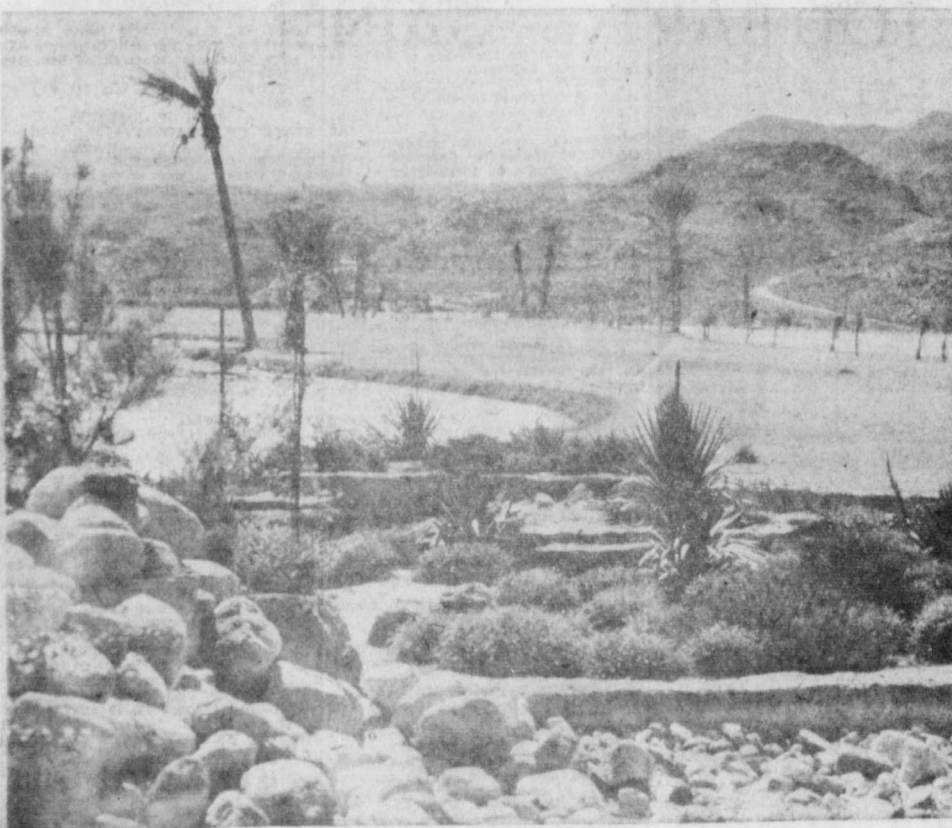

Located at the southeast city limits of Palm Springs, just off Highway 111 to the east, the land on which the course has been constructed will come within the city limits of Palm Springs on Nov. 14, 30 days after the City Council voted an uninhabited territorial annexation.

UNDER THE TERMS of the lease-purchase agreement with the Westview Development Corporation, the City will pay $62,500 a year rent on a lease that can run until July 2, 1969. The option to buy the course, through a bond issue voted by the people of Palm Springs, can be made after June 30, 1962, for a sum of $915,000 with all rent (except payments made on July 1, 1960 and July 1, 1961) deducted from the sale price.

The City Council only last Wednesday night approved the acceptance of a building from George Gannon, which will cost nothing but the moving fees, to be located on the course for business offices, pro shop, and starter building.

THE GOVERNING body of the golf course is the City Council, through City Manager Dan Wagner. The first lease on the course is for 16 years, renewable for 25 years if the purchase option has not been exercised.

Two contractual employees have been hired to take care of the municipal golf facility: Gordon Wycoff, greens superintendent at $900 a month, and Zell Eaton, pro-manager at $1,000 per month.

BEAUTY SPOT ON THE LINKS is the water course which fills the lake. Water is pumped from one of the two wells on the course, and it flows down this waterway to the lake. The course is a 6,550 yard facility and can be played in a par 72. It is the first municipal golf course in the desert area, and offers top golfing to both winter and summer visitors, as well as local residents.

EVERY FRIDAY morning at 8 a.m., City Manager Wagner calls a meeting of the staff to go over the operation of the golf course as well as to coordinate activities for the future.

The course itself is beautiful in every sense of the word. Its rolling green fairways and silky smooth greens will make it very popular among winter visitors and residents alike.

The longest hole on the course is number 13, which measures 543 yards from tee to pin for a par 5. The shortest is number 1, 163 yards, calling for a par 3.

A TOTAL OF 1,290 trees have been planted on the course, including palms, peppers, olive and eucalyptus, and the course boasts a lake which holds a total of 2,300,000 gallons of water. The lake is fed from two wells, and can be used for irrigation. As a protection to the city, a pipe system has also been installed so that the course could, in an emergency, tie into the domestic water supply.

To the northeast of the lake is a water concourse, built higher than the lake, into which is pumped water from the well and the water cascades along the concourse into the lake.

BEHIND THE acquisition of the Palm Springs Golf Course—working many hours—was one man, City Councilman George Beebe, who, working with other members of the council, laid all the groundwork for the lease-purchase.

The area on which the course is laid out provides room for a clubhouse (to be built in the future), a driving range which will soon be opened, parking, and a putting green.

The laying out of the course was done by a special golf committee, appointed by the City Council, and comprised of George Beebe, Jr., as chairman; John Wood, M. D. Anderson, Russell Wade and Joel ZELL EATON, Palm Springs Golf Course pro-manager, is pictured with City Manager Dan Wagner (at right) at the time Eaton's contract was signed last week. Eaton will get a guaranteed salary of $1,000 per month, and all revenues of the course will be turned over to the city. (Desert Sun Photo).

Stone. AFTER AN AGREEMENT was signed for the possible lease-purchase, the Golf Committee worked tirelessly checking out every possible avenue of expense and profit, and came up with a recommendation for the city to take over the facility.

Today the council has approved the fees for the course, which are subject to change after a short period of operation. The cost to golfers will be $3.50 for weekday play, and $5 for weekends and holidays, and the city will also issue books of tickets which will sell for $30 for a book of 10 tickets.

WITH THIS BOOK a golfer can save 50 cents a round during the week, and by adding 75 cents to his ticket, he can save 75 cents on weekend and holiday play.

Palm Springs Golf Course is the first municipal golf course opened in the desert area, and it too takes its place and does its part in making the Desert Resort area the Winter Golf Capital of the World.

Wade, Unitas Shift League Standings in Play Sunday

Packers Routed By Rams

By EARL WRIGHT

United Press International Bill Wade and John Unitas, master passers who handle the ball on almost every play, and Harland Sware, a linebacker who seldom gets his hand on it, are the guys most responsible for the reshuffled National Football League standings.

The Green Bay Packers, Baltimore Colts and San Francisco Forty-Niners (each 3-1) emerged from Sunday's action tied for first in the Western Division while the New York Giants (3-1) became undisputed Eastern leaders.

WADE PLAYED the key role in setting up the three-way Western deadlock when he threw three touchdown passes to spark the Los Angeles Rams (2-2) to a 45-6 victory over the hitherto unbeaten Packers.

Unitas, All-League quarterback for the champion Colts, virtually knocked the Bears (1-3) out of the Western race. He fired touchdown passes to Lenny Moore and L. G. Dupre and set up Alan Ameche's scoring dash in a 21-7 triumph at Chicago.

SAN FRANCISCO, with J. D. Smith scoring twice, smashed Detroit's dim Western hopes by whipping the Lions (0-4) at Briggs Stadium, 34-13.

The Giants took a 49-21 whipping from the Philadelphia Eagles two weeks ago. They trailed the same club Sunday, 7-0, when Sware delighted a record opening day crowd of 68,783 at Yankee Stadium. He started the Giants toward a relatively easy 24-7 victory by intercepting a Norm Van Brocklin pass and racing 70 yards to tie the score. It was his first touchdown in seven pro campaigns.

NEW YORK STARTED the day tied with Philadelphia and the Washington Redskins for the Eastern lead. The Giants took a one-game lead by downing the Eagles while the Pittsburgh Steelers turned four of seven Washington fumbles into points while enroute to a 27-6 victory.

The Cleveland Browns remained in the Eastern Race with a 17-7 victory over the Chicago Cardinals (1-3) on Milt Plum's 14-yard touchdown pass to Bob Mitchell.

Bernie Parrish's 37-yard scoring dash with an intercepted pass and Lou Groza's 19-yard field goal. Cleveland, Philadelphia, Washington and Pittsburgh (each 2-2) are tied for second behind New York.

Red Wings Keep On Winning, Go Unbeaten in Five

United Press International

The Detroit Red Wings are making monkeys out of the experts who picked them to renew their lease in the National Hockey League basement this season.

In a pre-season poll conducted by the Hockey News, eight of the 18 writers who cast ballots picked the Red Wings to wind up last again and none picked them to finish higher than fourth.

So what happened? Coach Sid Abel's skaters surprised the experts — and their rivals — by going unbeaten in their first five games.

Folkins Named Lineman of Week

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Lee Folkins, Washington University end, was today named "Lineman of the Week" in the Big Five.

The junior wingman was a defensive standout as he played almost 60 minutes in the Huskies' near-upset of mighty USC Saturday. The Trojans rallied for a 22-15 win. In addition, Folkins grabbed four passes for 52 yards.

It will not be used to criticize coaches or tactics. It was explained, but will offer moral support and encouragement to players and coaches alike.

Boxing Gets Shot in Arm, Four Good Bouts

NEW YORK (UPI) — Boxing gets a shot in the arm this week. Four excellent fights are included in the schedule, and a new small club opens in New York.

Good match-making is reflected in the week's two television bouts. Each is quoted at "even money." Welterweights Luis Rodriguez and Isaac Logart — both of Camaguey, Cuba — square off at Miami Beach Wednesday night in a (ABC) 10-rounder.

FRIDAY NIGHT'S (NBC) 10-rounder brings together heavyweights Tony Anthony of New York and Billy Hunter of Detroit for the first fight-show at Madison Square Garden in 10 weeks.

Perhaps the best bout on the schedule will be staged at Philadelphia's Convention Hall Monday night, when Sugar Hart and Charley Scott — both of Philadelphia — clash in a 12-rounder for the Pennsylvania state welterweight title and for the challenger's rung in the world rankings.

Hart, ranked No. 1 among world contenders, is a slight favorite at 6-5 over second-rated Scott.

AT LONDON, Tuesday night, world featherweight champion Davey Moore of Springfield, Ohio, engages Bobby Neil of Scotland in a non-title fight. Moore is favored at 3-1 over Neil, who is unranked among world contenders, but has a large British following.

Promoter Irving Cohen opens a new small club Monday night at the Academy of Music on 14th Street, with financial backing from the Madison Square Garden Club. There'll be no TV.

COHEN'S FIRST main event brings together welterweights Stefan Redl of Passaic, N. J., and Eddie Lynch of West New York in a 10-rounder.

Monday: New York Academy—Stefan Redl vs. Eddie Lynch. Philadelphia — Sugar Hart vs. Charley Scott. Stockton, Calif. — Donny Ursua vs. Jesus Miranda. Providence, R. I. — Willie Green vs. Dutch Craig.

Tuesday: London—Davey Moore vs. Bobby Neil (non-title). Boston — Joe Denucci vs. Bob Stevens. Pittsburgh—Bob Baker vs. Frankie Daniels. San Jose, Calif. — Duke Sabedong vs. Will Richardson.

Wednesday: Miami Beach — Isaac Logart vs. Luis Rodriguez (TV).

Thursday: Los Angeles — Raybon Stubbs vs. Frankie Ramirez. Friday: New York Garden — Tony Anthony vs. Billy Hunter (TV).

Saturday: Los Angeles — Hastings Hart vs. Johnny Hayden. Hempstead, N. Y. — Peter Schmidt vs. Billy Schell.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Les Scott and Ted Sparks of Los Angeles today were declared official winners of the $10,000 American International Auto Rally.

Saturday's Record

Take the Lead, Get Murdered

United Press International

Take the lead and get murdered.

That was just about the case along the West Coast football trail last Saturday where no less than six teams got on the scoreboard first then were racked up.

THE WORST CASE was at Stanford where the Indians coolly moved off to a 13-0 lead then finished as 36-19 losers to Washington State. Keith Lincoln, the Cougars' fine triple-threat, passed for two touchdowns and capped a great afternoon with a 50-yard scoring jaunt of his own late in the final period.

Lincoln also had a hand in a pair of two-point conversions, passing for one of them and smashing across for the other.

IN OTHER GAMES which found the victors coming from behind, Southern California downed Washington 22-15, UCLA put down California 19-12. Oregon grounded the Air Force 20-3, College of the Pacific bested Marquette 22-13 and Oregon State squashed Idaho 66-18.

Washington had the undefeated Trojans on the string, 15-14, with 10 minutes to play but quarterback Willie Wood came in to restore order.

BOB SCHLOREDT, the Huskies signal-caller, had swept left end for a score then crashed over tackle for two more points to give his team a one point margin in the final quarter. Then Wood directed the winning drive, going from five yards out to score in person, then passing to George Van Vliet for two more points.

California twice took the lead over UCLA but was doomed to its fourth straight loss anyhow as tailback Bill Kilmer scored twice and Ray Smith scampered 48 yards for the third Bruin TD. Walt Arnold and Grover Garvin tallied for the Bears.

George Pupich gave the Air Force a brief lead with a 23-yard field goal in the first period but the unbeaten Ducks struck back with a pair of touchdowns in the second period. Dave Groz launched a 50-yard scoring pass to Cleveland Jones for the first Oregon marker.

SENATORS WILL STAY IN CAPITAL ONE MORE YEAR

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Washington Senators are "certain" to stay in the nation's capital for at least another year, reliable sources said today.

The annual suspense over whether the American League Club would stay here or move to Minneapolis was ended over the weekend when owner Calvin Griffith vetoed any suggestion of transferring or selling the team.

State Asks More Water Resource Aid

Senate Committee Hears Requests For Federal Funds

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A U. S. Senate select committee has heard requests from Gov. Edmund G. Brown and other California officials for more federal money to develop water resources.

The committee, headed by Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla.) heard the requests in the Capitol. The senators continued their 17-state investigation of water resources problems with another hearing in Los Angeles.

BROWN SAID that he wanted more federal funds to furnish water for domestic, municipal and industrial use. He said it was time to change federal laws that encourage water resource development only for agricultural use.

He said that he realized his suggestion might mean a "substantial increase" in federal funds for water development but added: "We cannot afford as a nation to overlook the expanding needs of an expanding population."

STATE SEN. Stephen P. Teale (D-WEST Point) also asked for more federal money.

He said that Brown's $1,750,000 in some areas of the state in 1960 water development program for California would not begin to furnish adequate water supplies in some areas of the state including the western Sacramento and eastern San Joaquin Valleys.

SOVIET BORN MATH WHIZ SAYS RUSSIANS HAVE 'HUGE' LEAD

PARIS (UPI) — Dr. Solomon Lefschetz, Russian-born American mathematician who came out of retirement to help the United States space program, said the Russians are ahead because they have a 10 to 15 year lead in mathematics.

Lefschetz, 75, professor emeritus of Princeton University, is considered one of the leading mathematicians in the United States. He was awarded an honorary degree by the Sorbonne University Friday.

He said Soviet scientists solve control, stability and guidance problems on the drawing boards because "they are 10 to 15 years ahead of the United States in the field of non-linear differential equations."

MacCarthy Road Given Approval By Supervisors

A request by Palm Realty Company for establishment of a road to be known as MacCarthy Road extending northward from the city limits of Palm Springs for a quarter of a mile to Las Vegas Road was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week as recommended by the planning commission.

Acceptance of the road into the county road system is subject to the following conditions:

1. Sixty-foot right of way to be provided and road improved to subdivision standards including asphalt paving to a width of 36 feet and curbs and gutters, without cost to the county.

2. Forty feet to be provided for south half of Las Vegas Road and for the north half of San Rafael Drive.

3. Las Vegas Road and San Rafael Drive to be improved to standard half width section including asphalt pavement and curbs and gutters.

Board Approves Boat Sales Area

Establishment of a boat sales and service building in conjunction with a boat landing and the North Shore Marina on the north shore of Salton Sea near Date Palm Beach was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week. The building site is in an area now in an interim watercourse zone pending preparation of a comprehensive zoning plan.

The property is protected by a sea wall, and by railroad tracks which intercept runoff waters from the north. Floor elevation of the proposed structure will be seven feet above the present sea level, and two feet above the top of the sea wall.

CVSLA FETES 10TH BIRTHDAY, TREMENDOUS HIKE IN SERVICE

Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association this week is celebrating its tenth anniversary—and a tremendous increase in growth.

Pioneer savings and loan association in the Desert area, it was started by a group of Villagers with faith in the community's growth in October of 1949 with a staff of only two people and 800 square feet of office space at 232 North Palm Canyon Drive.

TWO YEARS LATER a consolidation was effected with the Palm Land Savings and Loan Association of Indio, and the entire organization moved ahead under one management.

In 1953 Coachella Valley outgrew its offices here, and moved to 176

South Indian Avenue offices with a total area of 2,000 square feet.

Growth again forced a move in 1956. With assets of $11 million and 17 employees, a new, modern building was constructed at 333 South Palm Canyon Drive.

THREE YEARS later—the firm's tenth anniversary—with total assets of more than $25 million and 42 employees in the Palm Springs and Indio offices, the firm has started provision for future expansion and has purchased the adjoining property which is now occupied by the Flame Restaurant.

In appreciation of the "wonderful support" which the people of Coachella Valley have given to Coachella Valley Savings and Loan, the firm is offering valuable prizes for new accounts and additions to all existing accounts up to the final date of the grand open house party Oct. 23.

W. H. SMITH, president, explained that "this is our way of saying 'Thank You' to our thousands of customers and friends for their wonderful support, which has enabled us to accomplish what was considered the impossible when we started."

During the past year CVSLA has further expanded its scope of activities and along with six other outstanding associations throughout California formed a holding corporation known as Financial Federation, Inc. Since the organization of this corporation, four additional associations were acquired, making a total of 11 and chalking up a total asset figure of over one quarter billion dollars.

SMITH IS ALSO a vice president and director of Financial Federation, Inc., which now operates from San Diego on the south to Chico on the north. Advantages of this combine, Smith said, are:

- Diversification of investments and areas served.
- Marketability of its stock holdings.
- Exchange of ideas in management, practices and controls.

Funds from large sources can now be procured and sent to each association in the group, all of which will give the investor assurance protection up to $10,000 on each account by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, Smith said. The trend of the times, he added, is toward the consolidation of all financial institutions for greater strength and stability.

Beachcomber Dance Lures CC Delegates

Bob Irvine who is on the faculty of the Lincoln Junior High School in Santa Monica was here for the weekend. He and Mrs. Irvine and Ed and Eleanor Donahue attended the Beachcomber Dance at the Elks Lodge in Indio Saturday night. The enjoyable affair was sponsored by the Desert Cities Council, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, for the benefit of Cystic Fibrosis. Amelia Irvine is vice president of the Sigma Gamma Chapter in Palm Springs and Eleanor Donahue is a member of Chi Theta Chapter in Cathedral City.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Williams of Seattle, Wash. are spending this month at the Sun Glow Motel.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Booth of Los Angeles spent last weekend at their desert home on Inyo. It was their first visit to the desert this season.

After spending three months on Whiby Island in Washington, salmon fishing and relaxing, Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Galloway returned to their Cathedral City home last week.

Christine Lillian, who came to Cathedral City in 1933, returned last week to her Sven-Ska Bungalows after spending five months at Sunset Beach in Encinitas. She visited with friends in La Jolla and Del Mar during the summer.

Among the guests at Desert Villa are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hardy, who are here for ten days from their home in Los Angeles, and Mr. and J. Otter and their niece and nephew, here for a week from Vancouver, B. C., enjoying their first visit to the desert.

Jack and Judy Rosser and baby daughter, Sharon, who now make their home in Long Beach, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schmidt at their home on "H" Street.

Alva Ransom arrived last week from her home in Alberta, Canada, to spend another winter at the Greener Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bigland, who a few weeks ago opened their custom made jewelry shop, "Jewelry by Jah," on Highway 111, spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vance Waterman in Tucson, Ariz., where they lived for a while during their five years of traveling around the country.

Linda Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Scott, writes from Rexburg, Idaho, where she is a freshman at Ricks College that she likes college, but "it's cold outside, and was only 41 degrees" that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Newell Pontet left Wednesday morning via Jet 707 for their home in Dallas, Texas, after spending 10 days at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brindle.

The first electric washing machine was introduced in 1910.

All for Naught

WESTPORT, Conn. (UPI) — After five workmen had spent 13 days installing an 800-foot sewer line on Burr Avenue here and had only two days left before finishing the job, it was discovered that Burr Avenue already had a sewer line. Somehow, it didn't show up on any maps.

DHS GIFT SHOP IN THIRD YEAR

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — One of the desert area's most exclusive gift shops is marking its third anniversary here with a three-day open house ending today.

The shop is Kephart's Gift Shop, at 66-461 West Pierson Boulevard, owned and operated by Glen and Ettie Kephart.

The store's anniversary open house program features a fresh birthday cake on each of the three days. Refreshments are being served all three days.

The Kephart shop is the only West Coast store handling collectors items of hand-blown glass and is one of 20 such shops in the United States to hold membership in the Diner's Club, officials reported.

Last year, more color ads appeared in daily newspapers than ever before. 1,000 daily newspapers in the United States and Canada, with a combined circulation of over 47,000,000 copies daily now color.
